DENR TO HOLD FIRST-EVER WOOD INDUSTRY SUMMIT

Monday, Jan 28, 2019

The Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) is holding the first-ever Forestry and Wood Industry Summit that aims to come up with a comprehensive strategy to revitalize the forestry and wood products sector and transform it into a growth industry. With the theme "Sustainable Forest Management: The Role of Wood Industry in Nation Building," the summit will be tomorrow (January 29) at the EDGA Shangri-La Hotel in Mandaluyong City. DENR Secretary Roy A. Cimatu is expected to...

THE T... GEOH...

Landslides in the country are prevalent because of the onslaught of typhoons that are primarily caused by climate change. As a vital environmental issue, the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) encourages the public to take precautions in their respective areas with the use of geohazard maps which serves to "identify various geological features and associated hazards and inform the local officials about the susceptibility of their..."
